

Inside Look at EBSA Initiatives in 2023 & 2024 Liam Roberts

Liam will be sharing a brief overview of the Employee Benefit Security Administration and its goals. He will also cover what to expect from an EBSA investigation of a Health Plan or Retirement Plan including the agency's general process for seeking corrections when violations are found. Finally, he will discuss the current EBSA investigative National Projects.

Liam "Liam" Roberts has served as the Seattle Office District Supervisor for the United States Department of Labor, Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) since April of 2020. Liam supervises and collaborates with a team of investigators to review Retirement, Health, Apprenticeship, and other types of Employee Benefit Plans for violations of ERISA.

Liam has worked at EBSA since 2007. Serving as an Investigator and Senior Investigator, Liam worked a variety of cases investigating Retirement Plan investments and fees; Employee Stock Ownership Plan valuations; Health Plan Service Provider self-dealing; retroactive cancellation of Health Plan coverages; as well as other issues.

Liam holds a Bachelor's degree in Philosophy from the University of Puget Sound and a law degree from Seattle University. In his off time, Liam can be found traveling the world with his wife.
