

Voice of the American Worker Tina White

This is our third year conducting the Voice of the American worker Survey which was Conducted by the Harris Poll on our behalf. Over 1000 employed US Adults participated in the survey. The findings indicate what employees/participants are thinking about. This study is part of our retirement innovation initiative which we started back in 2020 to improve retirement in the US.

Tina White is Vice President and Senior Retirement Director for the Pacific Northwest Region with Franklin Templeton's Retirement & Insurance/Subadvisory Division. She is responsible for directing and expanding sales of Franklin Templeton investment strategies, mutual funds, Collective Investment Trusts and custom solutions in employer-sponsored workplace savings plans. In addition, Mrs. White is the Sales Desk Manager for the Retirement & Insurance/Subadvisory Division. She oversees the Retirement Plan Consultants located in the Rancho Cordova, CA, St. Petersburg, FL and Stamford, CT offices.

Mrs. White's primary objective is to help more Americans achieve optimal retirement outcomes. She approaches this by offering thought leadership in retirement plan services and investments and working diligently as a key business partner to retirement plan advisory firms, consultants and retirement plan sponsors. Her expertise spans qualified and non-qualified retirement plans, Health Savings Accounts, investments, current industry trends and Franklin Templeton products and services. Additionally, Mrs. White provides valuable support to financial intermediaries including personalized Workplace and in-plan retirement income solutions, best practices, business building strategies, market intelligence and regulatory interpretation.

Credentials and awards

Tina holds FINRA Series 7, 63, 24 and 26 licenses and the CRPS, C(k)P, and CHSA designations.

Personal

Tina currently resides in Calaveras County, California with her husband of 30 years. She has three grown children and a granddaughter born in November 2019 and a grandson born in July 2021. In her free time, she enjoys exercising and being in the outdoors.